David Crowe is Director of Development and has served the Home Missions Department of the National Association of Free Will Baptists in Nashville, Tennessee, for the past 14 years. He was converted at the age of nine and began preaching at age 19 at First FWB Church in Winfield, Alabama. He has served as music and youth minister, assistant pastor, and pastor in Alabama and Tennessee. He has conducted numerous revivals and youth camps with multitudes of decisions made for Christ. His most recent pastorate was Cookeville FWB Church in Cookeville, Tennessee. Under his leadership, from 1987 to 1995, the church grew from 100 to over 500 with a high attendance of 880. He also established Upper Cumberland Bible Institute which has already trained over 400 men and women for the ministry.

Brother Crowe's burden is to help our churches, pastors, and people. Among his many gifts are those of preaching, encouraging, challenging, and inspiring those around him. Brother David enjoys working with the Free Will Baptist pastors and churches all across our denomination. He strives to encourage God's servants who may be weary or discouraged. It is his desire to do whatever is necessary to help our pastors succeed in the task that God has called them to do. David and wife, Kathey, are laboring together in the Lord's work.

This will be a time of fellowship with men across the state as well as a time of physical and spiritual relaxation and refreshing.

Don't miss all the benefits of this opportunity. Come and bring others to be challenged, uplifted, and encouraged to be used by God to do His work where you live.
